

TOWER HEIGHTS GOES ON MARKET

Desirable Tract of Virgin Ground Cut Up Into Building Lots.

WAS PART OF ESTATE LEFT BY BRIGHAM YOUNG.

Tower Heights, a tract of land between A and B streets and Sixth and Ninth avenues, is to be opened up as a new residence section of the city. This land was originally located soon after the arrival of the pioneers by Brigham Young and has been reserved for forty years. The tract is 20 by 70 rods, in the vicinity of the old tower, still standing, which was erected in the early days for protection against the Indians.

After the death of Brigham Young the land was purchased by R. R. Anderson, private secretary to President Young, who made the inventory of the estate. Many years ago Brigham Young predicted that this section would some day be the select residence portion of the city. It was Mr. Anderson's hope that the church would select this location as the site of a church university, but it was decided to locate the institution outside the city.

The land is divided up into about fifty building lots, which will be sold by Heber J. Grant & Co., who have secured the agency. The desirable location of this property will undoubtedly cause a demand for the lots. The district is fifteen minutes' walk from downtown, and there is also convenient car service. The Sixth avenue line running to Sixth and B. Preparations are being made for an extension of the line on B street to Ninth avenue.

On the west, the Tower Heights property faces City Creek park, insuring a good outlook. The lots are 125 feet above the road. On the east of the tract the McIntyre and Clayton mansions are located. It is believed the price at which the lots are held will insure the proper building restrictions. The land will be placed on the market at once, and blue prints are now in the hands of Heber J. Grant & Co.

OPINION BY BONAPARTE.

Washington, Aug. 2.—An opinion by Attorney General Bonaparte that the secretary of the navy is authorized by the law making appropriations for the purchase of submarine boats to divide the contract so as to purchase boats of both the Octopus and Lake types, was made public today. This overrules the opinion of the secretary of the navy that he is compelled to expend the entire appropriation for boats of the Octopus type.
